

Call for Women's Foil Next Gen Coach

The Canadian Fencing Federation (CFF) is seeking applications for a Next Gen coach with the women's foil national team program.

Working under the direction of the Women's Foil Head Coach, the Next Gen coach will:

- Organize domestic and international training camps.
- Provide support to Next Gen athletes and their personal coaches to maximize the daily training environment.
- Identify up-and-coming athletes and communicate with their personal coaches regarding selection policies, camps, and competition dates.
- Identify and work closely with clubs that have a core of Next Gen athletes.
- Communicate with IST staff to monitor training plans and plan opportunities for Next Gen to use National Team resources.
- Identify key benchmarks for Next Gen athletes in accordance with the Podium Pathway and report on athlete results throughout the season relative to those benchmarks.
- Attend designated national and international events.

The Next Gen coach will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Demonstrated ability to work as part of a coaching team.
- Demonstrated ability to successfully plan, organize and manage training camps as part of a national team program.
- Experience level and track record coaching at the Cadet and Junior international level in foil.
- Existing relationships with identified potential 2024/2028 Olympic team members is a plus but not a requirement.
- NCCP Competition-Development certification or foreign equivalent, or a combination of other coach certification and experience.

Applicants must submit the following:

- A coaching resumé, preferably including testimonials from current or former athletes.
- A written explanation of their coaching philosophy.

Applicants will have proven ability to work cooperatively with coaches and athletes, and will be able to communicate clearly (orally and in writing) in one of Canada's official languages.

Note: All submitted application materials will be treated as confidential and will not be shared with anyone other than the Hiring Committee without the applicant's written permission.

The Canadian Fencing Federation is committed to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion in our work environment. We actively encourage applications from persons who identify as women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ2S+ individuals, and members of visible minorities. Self-identification by candidates is completely voluntary.
